

PHILAMENT

REVISIONS

VOLUME 25

SEPTEMBER 2019

EDITOR

Ella Collins-White, Jennifer E.
Nicholson, and Samantha Poulos

MANAGING EDITOR AND DESIGN

Chris Rudge

WEBSITE

Elle Williams

Philament (ISSN 1449-0471) is a journal of scholarship by postgraduate and early-career researchers in literature, the arts, and cultural studies. All articles in Philament are peer reviewed. For more information about submitting to Philament, please see <http://www.philamentjournal.com>.

Copyright in all articles and associated materials in this journal are held exclusively by their respective authors, unless otherwise specified. All other rights and copyrights in this journal, including the content published on the journal's website, are held by Philament and their respective creators. No portion of this journal may be reproduced, by any process or technique, without the formal written consent of the managing editor.

For more information about the journal, including submission guidelines, please visit <http://www.philamentjournal.com>. To contact the editors, email philament.usyd@gmail.com or use the following mailing address: Managing Editor, Philament: A Journal of Literature, Arts, and Culture, Room N305, The John Woolley Building (A20), The University of Sydney NSW 2060, Australia. Philament acknowledges the support of SUPRA, the Sydney University Postgraduate Representative Association.

CONTENTS

EDITORIAL

- 1 REVISING ACADEMIC GENEROSITY
ELLA COLLINS-WHITE, JENNIFER E. NICHOLSON, AND SAMANTHA POULOS

PEER-REVIEWED ARTICLES

- 7 “BETWIXT AND BETWEEN”: REREADING
POPPY AS AUTOFICTION
CHERYL O’BYRNE
- 29 THE LANGUAGE OF TOUCH:
RETHINKING SILENCE AND TRAUMA
RESTORATION IN ANIL’S GHOST
NICOLE ONG
- 53 “SHUT UP OR I’LL SHUT YOU UP”:
FAMILY VIOLENCE IN CHRISTINA
STEAD’S THE MAN WHO LOVED
CHILDREN
SAMANTHA LEWIS

EXCURSIONS

77

TO BE REVISED

DASHIELL MOORE

78

WHAT IT IS TO BE A GOD

DASHIELL MOORE

REVIEWS

81

ON TIMOTHY MORTON'S *DARK
ECOLOGY: FOR A LOGIC OF FUTURE
COEXISTENCE*

NANDA JAROSZ

88

CONTRIBUTOR BIOGRAPHIES